Operation Ho, Ho, Ho is a toy drive that we run every December to help bring smiles to the families staying at the Ronald McDonald House in Long Branch during the holiday season as a member of their family fights to see their next Christmas.

Since 1998, the Operation Ho, Ho, Ho elves have been hard at work continually growing this simple concept of collecting unwrapped toys at their work, among their various social organizations and during their holiday parties.

Additionally, for years the elves inevitably received gifts from their family and friends that came to their holiday celebrations.

Though the bottles of wine and trinkets were greatly appreciated, the elves decided to include a simple little note in their invitation to instead bring an unwrapped toy to bring a smile to a unknowing toddler's face...
